Spiritual Colognes

A great collection of different spiritual colognes to mix and match into many things such as floor washes, spiritual baths and more. It is often used in spiritual practices and rituals, as well as for its natural fragrance.

The use of spiritual colognes amplifies your rituals, cleanses the home, purifies your aura, brings good luck, protection, as well as uplifts energy purification and cleansing, evoking the blessings of good spirits and ancestors, and is a fitting offering to the beloved departed and delights the spirit.

This can be also used as a simple perfume for protection, to draw in good fortune, and in any kind of spell to block out negativity and harmful entities.

Sprinkle where needed, use a spoon or two in a bath or floor wash, wear it as a cologne to bring blessings and to hear your ancestors more clearly, or leave a small cup of it on your altar or ancestor shrine.
